

Study Barometer is a research program, which FES Skopje is undertaking for more than ten years. These informational studies are well established and accepted product of FES, used for the project purposes and additionally encouraging is the shown interest for following the changes and engagements toward implementation and development on the democratic processes in Republic of Macedonia. The study is tackling as well, the development, situation and current state of the reform processes of Republic of Macedonia towards the NATO and EU integrations, the name issue, political party developments and development of the political culture, economic and social state of the Macedonian society, multiethnic relations and co-existence of different ethnic group represented in Macedonia etc.

Within this study, the author Natasha Gaber Damjanovska is presenting you the latest events and political parties developments in Republic of Macedonia in the first half of 2014.

read more

: